Progress Towards Goal:

As of today, Foodshare has received enough turkeys to provide Thanksgiving dinner to 1,647 Greater Hartford families. But that still leaves 14,541 individuals seeking help for the holiday, based on requests placed through local food pantries and kitchens.

The generous people of our region have also donated $299,024 to help feed these families all year long, and build lasting solutions to hunger.

Bank of America’s Turkey Tuesday
With support from UnitedHealthcare and Optum

What: Turkey Tuesday has become an integral part of Foodshare’s Turkey and Thirty Campaign. Brad Davis, of WDRC-AM’s Talk of Connecticut will be broadcasting LIVE from CityPlace to promote the event.

For those unable to make it, turkey and cash donations can still be made by calling the turkey hotline at 860-856-HELP (4357) on Turkey Tuesday, and all month long.

When: Tuesday, November 17th from 6:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Where: CityPlace, 185 Asylum Street, Hartford

Who: James Arena-DeRosa, Foodshare President & CEO
Dean Andrews, Bank of America Senior Vice President
Craig LaFiandra, UnitedHealthcare Vice President
Brad Davis, Host of Talk of Connecticut on WDRC-AM Radio
Local dignitaries throughout the morning

Why: Last week, Foodshare’s President and CEO James Arena-DeRosa announced the food bank’s goal for their annual Turkey and Thirty campaign. “This holiday, Foodshare has been asked to help 16,188 Greater Hartford residents join in the celebration by providing a traditional Thanksgiving turkey. These requests come directly from our partner programs–food pantries and community kitchens–who serve our neighbors in need.” Foodshare is looking to the community at-large to help make sure every one of those requests is filled.

Highland Park Market will be accepting donations through November 24th, as will the food bank’s Bloomfield distribution center. For a complete list of donation sites, or to make a donation online, please visit www.aturkeyand30.org.

About Foodshare

Recognized as one of the most innovative, progressive and efficient food banks in the country, Foodshare has served Hartford and Tolland counties since 1982. Last year, Foodshare provided enough food for 12 million meals to 300 partner programs including food pantries, community kitchens, and homeless shelters, and through its Mobile Foodshare program. The organization also works on reducing the need, with programs that help people get back on their feet and get the resources they need to buy their own food. Working in partnership with other community leaders such as the United Way, End Hunger Connecticut! and 211 Infoline, Foodshare has the experience and is building the networks necessary to help make this vision a reality.
